We are so thankful that you have chosen to worship with us today. If you are visiting let me welcome you and ask that you please fill out a Connection card found in the pew and return it to an usher at some point today. Despite the cold and snow of the past week, it is not yet Christmas. This week is that forgotten holiday of Thanksgiving. I pray that despite our rush towards Christmas, that we not miss the opportunity to slow down this week and give thanks for all the great things Jesus has done for us. This morning presents us with the opportunity to reflect in the spirit of Thanksgiving on what the Cross, the Blood and the Empty Grave means for the world today. As we pass the plate in order to remember these things, I hope that you will reflect on what salvation means for you. Where would we be if it were not for Jesus? But, don't allow today to be the only time this week you stop and give thanks. He is worthy of our praise and thanksgiving every day. Don't forget that there will be no midweek services this week due to the holiday. God bless you and may the Lord use you greatly this week.

For His Glory,
Pastor Justin
