

We are so thankful that you have chosen to worship with us today. If you are visiting let me welcome you and ask that you please fill out a Connection card found in the pew and return it to an usher at some point today. Unless you have been living in a bunker this week, you are aware that the Rev. Billy Graham passed away. It was encouraging on Wednesday to see the impact he had on so many as I read through popular blogs and across social media. Upon driving on early Thursday morning, I was reminded again of his influence when I saw a memorial upon the digital board on Reelfoot Avenue. Yet, despite the appreciation of his life, in 24 hours the articles began to emerge criticizing and lamenting his weaknesses. One prominent paper stated, "Regarding the most important issues of his lifetime, he championed the wrong policies." I immediately thought, "the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing." The author of the article failed to listen to the message which Billy Graham preached, which is the most important issue of world history: salvation. Social policies and matters, while important, do not solve the problem of the heart. I'm grateful he understood the main thing and never lost sight of mankind's greatest need. It is estimated that during his life he spoke to over 200 million people, which is more than any human being in history. His crusades recorded over 3 million testimonies of salvation. A question that has been asked repeatedly this week is, Who will step up to take his place and tell the world that Jesus loves them? The real question is will you tell the world? God is not looking for the next Billy Graham— he instead is looking for the next saint who will surrender their life to him and commit to tell the world about Jesus. I pray today that you will tell someone this week what Jesus has done for you and what He wants to do for them.

For His Glory,
Pastor Justin

NEW SERMON & LIFE GROUPS SERIES

1 Corinthians has much to say to the modern world. No book in the New Testament does more to explain the grace of God, the lordship of Christ, and the work of the Holy Spirit. Above all, it shows the importance of asking, How does the gospel teach us to live? The series begins today and continues the following week in all our adult Life Groups. The full weight of this series cannot be felt in just attending the worship service. Therefore, let me encourage you to connect with a Life Group to fully experience the power of this incredible book.

FINANCIAL MATTERS

Online giving is now available. To give online, visit www.secondbaptistuc.com and click on the tab at the top (Giving). Simple instructions are located in the middle of the page. You may give a one-time gift or set up regularly scheduled offerings from your checking account.

BACKPACK PROGRAM

Thank you so much for your donations to the Backpack Program. We will continue to collect items through Sunday, March 4. Items we are short of are Yoo-Hoo drinks, juice boxes or Gatorades, mac-n-cheese cups and snack items (fruit snacks, pudding or applesauce cups, cheese and crackers, etc.). Any donation is appreciated but the above listed items are things in need of. Monetary donations can still be given to Lorraine Gossett, Shelly Arnett or turned in to the church office.
