

We are so thankful that you have chosen to worship with us today. If you are visiting let me welcome you and ask that you please fill out a Connection card found in the pew and return it to an usher at some point today. Today we continue our new series in 1 Corinthians examining the division at Corinth. From time to time I have preached on Sunday night, messages that people recommend I do on Sunday morning. I understand their reasoning and agree, yet God calls me to share it in the evening. Tonight will be one of those occasions. I will be preaching from Psalm 32 on Forgiveness and Deliverance from sin. I would love to encourage you to be back with us at 6:00 PM for an incredible night of worship through song and the Word. Finally, many people have asked about the numbers on the back of each week's bulletin. The reason for those distinct categories is because we desire to celebrate all the ways God is using the people and ministries of our church. We have started tracking salvations directly related to the ministry of members in our church. Therefore, if you lead someone to Christ please let us know so that we may celebrate with you. What a blessing to see many still coming to faith in Jesus Christ.

series cannot be felt in just attending the worship service. Therefore, let me encourage you to connect with a Life Group to fully experience the power of this incredible book.

NEW SERMON & LIFE GROUPS SERIES

1 Corinthians has much to say to the modern world. No book in the New Testament does more to explain the grace of God, the lordship of Christ, and the work of the Holy Spirit. Above all, it shows the importance of asking, How does the gospel teach us to live? The series begins today and continues the following week in all our adult Life Groups. The full weight of this

Guest Speaker: Jim Keeling (The Preaching Potter)

Jim has been in the ministry for over 50 years, serving as a missionary in Alaska and West Indies for 18 of those years. Jim resigned his church of over 7 years to go full-time in ministering through pottery. Come here a unique message comparing our lives to that of clay. His desire is to use the potter's wheel as a ministry to illustrate Biblical truth. Sign up at the Welcome Center.
