

We are so thankful that you have chosen to worship with us today. If you are visiting let me welcome you and ask that you please fill out a Connection card found in the pew and return it to an usher at some point today. The month of December is an exciting time for all of us. As Christians, it is time to reflect on the gift of God's only son whose sacrifice has made it possible to be saved. As families, it is a time to celebrate traditions, exchange gifts, and find the best in others. As a church, it is a time of worship that resonates among believers and unbelievers alike. At Second Baptist, one of the great highlights of our Christmas celebrations is the annual adult musical. I cannot express enough how wonderful tonight's (6:00 PM) and tomorrow's (7:00 PM) presentations will be. Our choir, musicians, technical team, drama participants and many others have put in months of preparation for All Is Well. Make every effort to come worship with us and invite a friend or co-worker to join you. Don't forget that we are receiving pledges toward our security goals during the month, with a commitment to be fulfilled by the end of March. If you would prefer to make a year-end gift toward that goal, then simply designate it for Security. Finally, I hope that you will continue to pray for our IMB missionaries and how you can support them through the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering. For those who have done so already, I thank you. If you have not given then consider how the Lord would lead you to support this most important need today.

For His Glory,
Pastor Justin
