Van & I would like to thank our church family for the gift given to The Seed Company in memory of David Hazlewood, Van's brother, who went to be with the Lord recently. David would be so blessed, and so are we, that funds were given to translate the Word of God to these unreached people in their own language. How awesome to think that one day we will meet them in Heaven. Thank you and God bless!

Van & Brenda Hazlewood

I want to thank the WInGS ladies for supporting me as I prepare to go on to the mission field. It will help greatly. I am so thankful to have all of you as a part of the team and my journey. I would also like to thank everyone who came to my shower and to my church family for supporting me. I am so grateful for the gracious gifts and words of encouragement that have been given to me. They will continue to bless me as I enter the mission field in Uganda. I want to especially thank Lisa Crews and Jennifer Powers for organizing the shower. It was a wonderful time of fellowship and encouragement. I am so grateful for a church family that prays for me and supports me. I will keep all of you updated with what all the Lord is doing in Kaabong, Uganda.

*Your missionary,
Randi Lynn McBride*
